

Curriculum Vitae

PETER RANDALL

BIOGRAPHY

Peter Randall graduated from Victorian College of Arts, Prahran campus, in 1984 with a bachelor of fine arts degree, majoring in sculpture.

Working with materials, such as cardboard, steel and bronze, Peter's work explores architectural themes and 3 dimensional pattern development.

Peter retired from working as a full time artist in 1997 to start a business as an Australian distributor for Aga and Rayburn Cookers.

Other activities Peter has been involved with include being a founding member of Caravan Sculptors in 1985 and performing in P.F.M throughout 1986 –1991, and Balaclava Joe throughout 1996–2001.

In 1994– 1997, Peter established a specialised metal work shop in St Kilda. He has designed and produced public seats for Ackland st, as well as various commissions including casting entry signage for theatre works.

Peter's work was represented by Judith Pugh from 1986 right through to 2005.

He is now acting treasurer of the Contemporary Sculptors Association C.S.A. from Abbotsford, Melbourne
